

- Location: Main Reception Room
- Dress Code: There is no specific dress code for this event, from Tuxedo to casual whatever you would like is fine. We do ask that guests remember why we are here and whom we are doing this in memory of (their willingness to serve, their deeds and in over 2000 cases those who paid the supreme sacrifice).
- Master of Ceremonies: Peter G. Noel
- Reception: 6-7 pm - during the reception there will be a cash bar and the opportunity to view our live auction items and to bid on the silent auction items as well as place tickets in the draws for the raffle items and of course no event would be complete without a 50/50 draw.
- Dinner Menu: Dinner will start with a choice of Award-winning Salt Fish Cakes or classic Caesar Salad. For the Main Course you will have a choice of Pork Tenderloin Medallions with mushrooms and marsala cream reduction or Garlic crusted Cod with Cherry Tomato Salas. All meals will be served with chef's selection of seasonal vegetables and baby potatoes Desert Choices are Southern style Pecan Pie with vanilla bean ice cream or Chocolate and banana bread pudding with caramel rum sauce. A choice of red or white wine will be on each table. There will also be Vegan and Gluten Free options. This information will be collected at the time of table/individual sales.
- Balloon Pop Fundraiser: Between the main course and the desert we will be conducting a balloon pop where people will get the opportunity to purchase a balloon (different colours at different costs), and on the count of 3 we all pop our balloons...the prize inside will be worth at least twice as much as what the balloon cost.
- Dinner Entertainment: During the Reception and Dinner The Royal Newfoundland Regiment Band will play a selection of classic songs and various artists will perform. There will also be special guests.
- Silent Auction Closing: As the evening progresses, we will announce the closing times on various silent auction items.
- TCRG Presentation: After desert is served, we will do a short presentation of what the Trail of the Caribou Research Group has accomplished in the past 2 years and our way forward.
- Auctions: The evening will conclude with the live Auction and the announcement of the silent auction and raffle winners.

Notes:

1. The formal part of the evening should be complete at around 9:45, the venue and bar will remain open for socializing until 11pm.
2. Three days before the event an email will be sent out with the list of prizes that will be available. To date we have trips, WW1 original Blue Puttees, an original Beaumont Hamel artwork, other paintings, dinners and hotel escapes and many more.
